

Statutory Maternity Pay (SMP)

jobcentreplus

Department for Work and Pensions

If you are an employer

You must fill in this form when your employee is not entitled to Statutory Maternity Pay (SMP), or when you cannot continue paying SMP. Fill in all the parts of the form.

The information you give in this form will help Jobcentre Plus to decide on your employee's claim for Maternity Allowance.

When you have completed this form, you must give the form to the employee together with the original Maternity Certificate MAT B1 that your employee gave you. She can then make a claim for Maternity Allowance.

For more information about SMP, please read E15 Employer Helpbook for Statutory Maternity Pay. This Helpbook includes information about the time limits and penalties that HM Revenue & Customs can impose if you do not give your employee the information on this form.

You can get the E15 from the HM Revenue & Customs website at www.gov.uk/maternity-leave-pay-employees

Or you can contact HM Revenue & Customs Employer helpline on 0300 200 3200.

If you are an employee

Your employer has given you this form because you cannot get SMP, or your employer cannot pay you SMP any more. You can find out the reason why in Part D.

If you disagree with your employer's decision not to pay you SMP, ask your employer to explain it to you. If you are still unsure, you can use the SMP calculator to work out what SMP you should get. Go to www.gov.uk/maternity-benefits

Ask your employer for a reason if you think

- their decision not to pay you SMP is wrong
- you are not getting the right amount of SMP.

If you still disagree, you can phone the HM Revenue & Customs employee's enquiry line on 0300 200 3500 for advice.

Part D: Why I cannot pay you SMP

I have ticked the boxes below to tell you why I cannot pay you Statutory Maternity Pay (SMP).

You were not employed by me for long enough

To get SMP you must be employed by me for a continuous period of at least 26 weeks into the 15th week before the week your baby is due. Even if your baby is born early, you still would not have been employed by me for a continuous period of at least 26 weeks into the 15th week before the week your baby was due.

Your average weekly earnings were not high enough

To get SMP your average weekly earnings before taking off tax and National Insurance must be at least equal to the Lower Earnings Limit.

I have calculated your earnings on all your earnings and contractual benefits on which you pay National Insurance contributions. Some employers have special arrangements for paying National Insurance contributions on certain payments of expenses. Where the law says I must, I have included these earnings in the calculation.

You did not tell me soon enough that you will stop work to have your baby

To get SMP you must give me at least 28 days notice of the date you will stop work to have your baby and start your SMP.

You did not have a good reason for giving me less notice than this.

You did not give me medical evidence soon enough

To get SMP you must give me your Maternity Certificate MAT B1, or other acceptable evidence, within 3 weeks of the start of your Maternity Pay Period.

If you had a good reason for taking longer than this, I could only allow you up to 13 weeks to give me this evidence.

You did not tell me soon enough that your baby had been born

To get SMP you must tell me about your baby within 28 days of the date your baby is born.

You did not have a good reason for taking longer to tell me this.

You were in legal custody

You cannot get SMP if you are in legal custody at the beginning of your Maternity Pay Period.

If you have been getting SMP, you stop getting it when you go into legal custody.

You have started work after the birth

You cannot get SMP if you have started work after the birth, for an employer who did not employ you in the 15th week before the week your baby was due.
